THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1899.

The Third Nebraska regiment at Cuba has been shipped to Dry Tortugas to be mustered out. They will be allowed travel pay home.

The Ord Quiz completed its seventeenth year last week. In that time it has neither changed editors, its religion or politics, and from its appearance it is good for another generation.

The Daily Hub, of Kearney, issued an easter edition with illustrated cover. It was well patronized by advertisers and was very complimentary to the publishers and the city.

Had the legislature passed a resolution complimenting Col. Bryan for resigning his position before his regiment went to Cuba doubtless Gov. Poyter would have signed the bill.

Justice Field, who has the honor of occupying a seat on the supreme bench of the United States longer than any of his predecessors or associates, died Sunday. When he resigned last fall he had served as a member a few months over thirty four years.

The Gering Courier reports work commenced on the B. & M. R. R. in that vicinity, and that the U. P. surveyors have reached the town on a survey that that road is making up the North Platte river. There seems but little doubt Gering will have one, and possibly two rail roads before fall.

The law and order element of Grand Island, who had H. C. Miller as their candidate for mayor were defeated simply because they had not the courage to nominate a republican ticket. The republicans listened to the prattle of their enemies against a partisan ticket. The result is they have a democrat for mayor and their opposition to drunkenness and gambling has come to naught. The better element of Broken Bow won simply because in had a partisan ticket back of it.

The candidacy of Gov. Holcomb for congress in the sixth district is no longer a doubted question. At present he seems to have the field. There are doubtless many others who would like to secure the nominations, but as yet they have not been able to organize their forces sufficiently to claim a standing. The Governor will have some strong opposition in his own party, but probably it will not be strong enough to defeat his nomination.

The death of Congressman Green relieves any further contention between ex-Senator Allen and ex-Gov. Holcomb's friends as to which one shall have the pop nomination for member of the supreme court. As Allen can not be a candidate for congress and fill the vacancy he will accept the nomination for judge and doubtless use his influence in securing the congressional nomination for Holcomb, whose home is in the sixth district. While they are both popular with their party and are the strongest men they could nominate, they will not be strong enough to save the sinking ship this fall. The pop party is doomed.

NEBRASKA AND EXPANSION.
The returns from every state which held elections Monday or Tuesday of this week were highly encouraging. It is evident that the middle West, from Ohio to Nebraska, is soundly republican, but the news from the latter state is especially significant. The Omaha report to this newspaper, published yesterday, say of the city elections which were held that day all over the state, Omaha itself excepted, that "the heaviest vote in years was polled, and in almost every instance where there were partisan issue—and this was true in every city except the smaller places where the question of license for saloons absorbed all the attention—large republican gains are noted."

This grand rally to the republican standard was not over the question of sound money. Silver and gold did not out much figure in the case. The Nebraskans are down to date in their politics. The Philippine war was the issue. Small it be approved or censured. That issue was joined in that state and no other.

The prominence of Bryan, and the well-know fact that he is an anti-expansionist, had much to do with this early joining of the expansion issue. But in addition to this is the general fact that Nebraska has a regiment of volunteers which is reflecting much honor upon the state by its bravery in the Philippine war, and the more definite fact that the republican legislature of the state passed a joint resolution of thanks to the regiment, which the populist governor vetoed. That contemptible insult to the brave Nebraskans in the far East aroused the indignation of the patriotic citizens, and they rallied to its repudiation and condemnation. The vote of Tuesday was a popular vindication of the policy pursued by the government in putting down insurrection in the Philippines. Nebraska has the honor of being the first state to meet that issue and make a patriotic record on it.—Inter Ocean.

The last act in the war with Spain was declared on Tuesday, April 11. It was the occasion of the exchange of the terms of the ratification documents between the two governments. When the details of the ceremony was completed President McKinley issued his proclamation declaring the war at an end.

BURLINGTON IS BUILDING.

All doubts of a new rail road from Alliance to the southwest may now be set at ease, because General Manager Holdrege of the Burlington has announced that such a line is in process of construction from Alliance, on the Billings branch, to Hartsville, Wyo., a mining town near the Cheyenne & Northern road, a total distance of 115 miles.

"Is your company building a rail road from Alliance southwest—the Nebraska, Wyoming & Western rail road?" was asked of Mr. Holdrege.

Mr. Holdrege replied: "The Nebraska, Wyoming & Western company is building from Alliance to the North Platte valley and thence west, not our company."

"Is that company controlled by the Burlington & Missouri or the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy?"

"No," he replied, "not now; possibly it may be controlled by us some day."

"Are forces now at work?"

Mr. Holdrege answered: "Yes, right of way has been secured, and grading forces are now in the field."

In addition to this, Mr. Holdrege stated that there are now 120 teams working on the Nebraska portion of the line, eighty-five miles, and that the work is being rapidly pushed on the thirty miles in Wyoming. When completed, it will be laid with seventy-five-pound rails, and made a first-class roadbed in every particular.

TWO MORE BRANCHES.
It is asserted by others in position to know that the plans backed by the Burlington contemplate a further extension to Brush, on the Denver branch, and another extension up the North Platte valley.—World-Herald.

Deer Creek
Weather more like spring.
A good many farmers have commenced to work in the fields, but some are waiting for warmer weather.

Rollie Cline has commenced work for Will Owen.
J. A. Owen made a trip to Ansley last Friday.

Cal Crawford has purchased a new disk and a letter. This must mean something.

Miss Lulu Myers has been visiting in Broken Bow the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman are rejoicing over a new boy.

Myron Taylor sends word home that he likes school very much.
H. J. Edington took a load of hogs to Broken Bow last week.

There will be a missionary entertainment at New Hope school house on April 20th. Every one who attends is assured a pleasant time.

West Union.
Spring at last is with us, and the farmers are busy putting in their crop of small grain.

Frank Sutton will farm the John Orvis place this season.
Willard West, an enterprising young farmer south of the river, will farm A. B. Hartley's old place and also C. N. Patch's old place. He has employed Claude Kime to help him the coming season.

Mrs. A. F. Spooner, of Sargent, has been employed to teach the spring term of school.

Notwithstanding the long cold winter and more than the usual number of cattle wintered here, in all directions we see smoke arising from burning straw stacks, which are not needed for feed.

Geo. Lovejoy commenced his school in district No. 40 last week.

John Rainer, our implement dealer, is selling more implements than any man in the valley.

Ansley.
We have those among us that are always conducting the affairs of state and know more about the needs of the people than anyone else; but if you would visit this city or village and see the prosperity over the drought years, you could scarcely comprehend the magnitude of the change. The front windows of the merchants of this place show great tact in display. Hotels Jones and Moore are both first class, vying with each other for guests and entertaining the same. The tradesmen all seem to have a good trade and are very busy.

The funeral of Miss Esther Hayes was held in the church at this place at 1 p. m., the 12th ult., and it was said that there one hundred people that could not get inside of the church. Two of Nebraska's teachers have had to succumb to the great destroyer of human life, death; the one made mention of in this article, and Miss Nellie Richtmyer, both being well known to the writer. We hereby pay tribute of condolence to both families.

Hanson City.
By Panch and Judy.
J. H. Walsh arrived in this place from Kansas City last Thursday.
Grace Bartlett, who has been sick for some time, is now better.

Mrs. P. H. Marley went to Kansas City Monday to have her eyes doctored.

Mrs. and Miss Burrows, of Palmyra, arrived here Saturday night.

Ron, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lamb, on April 6th, a girl.

A Anderson has engaged in the insurance business.

Dr. Mullins, of Broken Bow, made a professional visit to this place Saturday.

Did you know that there were fish in the Calamus.

W. N. Hurley has gone back into the blacksmith business again.

Geo. Fielding reports good roads to Ansley.

Died, Mr. Alfred E. Burrows, aged twenty-one years, two months and twenty days, of spinal meningitis, on Saturday, April 8th. The remains were taken to Palmyra for burial.

C. E. Getchel and wife went to Litchfield Sunday.

Geo. Fielding was working for F. H. Foster the fore part of the week.

The high school will give an entertainment in the hall on April 22d.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Moomey went to Ansley Monday evening.

Ed Fielding is working for Deardorf.

Earnest Taylor went to Broken Bow Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kelley's baby is very sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fairfield attended the funeral of Miss Esther Hayes at Ansley Monday.

Miss Nellie Warrington was visiting in Mason Saturday and Sunday.

A. A. Coxson visited friends in the country Sunday.

Shad Chase was an Ansley visitor Sunday.

Carl Fairfield went to Ansley Monday to attend the funeral of Esther Hayes.

Mrs. C. B. Stephenson, of Anrona, is visiting with Chas. Spetler and family.

One evening this week our young friend, A. H. Barks, attired himself in his new fireman's uniform, parted his hair in the middle, waxed his luxuriant mustache and started out to visit a lady friend living east of Mason City, near Round Grove. While passing a small clump of trees near Mr. Bingham's, Arthur was startled by the sound of footsteps beyond the trees. Thinking it was some wild animal that infested these parts, he at once stopped and prepared himself for what he thought would be his last fight on earth. Slowly the branches of the trees in front of him parted, and there in its most fervent mood stood a full grown snow bird. Mr. Barks not being a coward, showed fight, but the struggle was soon brought to an end, for the snow bird proved far too clever a fighter for his opponent, and Arthur was soon put to flight. Now Mr. Barks says that he shall never again pass through the jungles of Round Grove at night. Moral: Remember the story of the little bird.

ALL WOMEN AGREE.

A druggist in Macon, Ga., says: "I have sold a large quantity of Mother's Friend, and have never known an instance where it has failed to produce the good results claimed for it. All women agree that it makes labor shorter and less painful."

Mother's Friend
is not a chance remedy. Its good effects are readily experienced by all expectant mothers who use it. Years ago it passed the experimental stage. While it always shortens labor and lessens the pains of delivery, it is also of the greatest benefit during the earlier months of pregnancy. Morning sickness and nervousness are readily overcome, and the liniment relaxes the strained muscles, permitting them to expand without causing distress. Mother's Friend gives great recuperative power to the mother, and her recovery is sure and rapid. Danger from rising and swelled breasts is done away with completely.

Sold by druggists for $1 a bottle.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundreds of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chamberlain's is the most satisfactory to the people. For sale by all druggists.

Rag Carpet
Sold cheap, in any length piece desired. Carpet weaving solicited. Prices reasonable.
